The 2008 harvest, in the market already

Bodegas As Laxas puts to disposal of his distributors the 2008 harvest of its main wines, specially, the Albariño Laxas 2008: a wine that, in this occasion, highlights by his balance, without that this mean to lose these notes of citric and of typical acidity of the variety albariño and that do this wine are excellent to combine with fishes and seafood.

A Baga do Miño of 2002, rewarded in 2008!

A Baga do Miño of 2002 obtained a medal of bronze in the recent contest Taste of the Harvests, organized by the Regulatory Council of the D.O. Rias Bixas. This prize puts on evidence how a wine can remain his virtues to in spite of the step of the time, if it puts taken care in his elaboration.

Laxas in the Honor Roll

The Guía de los Vinos Gourmets (one of the more recognized Spanish wine's digest) has selected the albariño Laxas inside his Honor Roll of the best wines of this year. For the quoted guide, the merits of Laxas are: "Intense nasal road with aromas of litchies, honeysuckle, citrus fruit (lime), cantaloup melon and herbs. Fruity and zesty.

Val do Sosego at Beijing 2008 Olympic Games

On last October, the best USA and Canada students of the program Educators of The Wine, visited Spain to know the Bodegas As Laxas' cellars. It was a pleasant surprise find us with a fortnight of American specialists that already spoke of the big virtues of our wines in the distance. Between which visited us there be restore-gild, importing and/or head of shopping of California, Philadelphia, Washington, Washington D.C., New Jersey, Miami and Vancouver (Canada).
